Caroline Onufrow, branch manager of Weichert, Realtors' Kinnelon Office, announces Lynda Hester-D'Orio as Weichert's top listing associate for June.

D'Orio was also recently named the top producer (listings, sales and completed transactions) in the month of April. This is not the first time D'Orio was awarded top producer of the office and she has been consistently recognized for her achievement in sales for over 10 years. She was recently awarded NJ Monthly's Five Star Realtor recognition for excellence for the second year in a row. She has been in the Circle of Excellence in 2011 and Weichert's Executive and Director's Club. She is a certified relocation agent and has consistently been recognized for top level service.

"I am very pleased to receive this recognition and am looking forward to an active real estate market going forward," D'Orio said.

For those considering selling their home or buying in this area, D'Orio can assist with all their real estate needs. They can invite this top-producing real-estate professional into their homes today and learn about the real estate services that Weichert, Realtors has to offer. She can be reached at Weichert's Kinnelon Office, 174 Boonton Ave., 973-838-6200, or directly at 973-768-1888.
